WELCOME

The team and I have brought together a fantastic range of productions for the whole family in our new 2020 programme, which we hope you enjoy.

We always like to hear your feedback and last season some of our customers told us they were pleasantly surprised to see that we present live performances on stage as well as our Event Cinema screenings. Hopefully you’ll notice within this season’s brochure that we have made it clearer where a performance is a ‘Live On Stage’ or an event broadcast on our cinema screens. We hope our exciting range of theatre performances will help our customers become more aware of Broadway as both a cinema and a theatre.

Broadway continues to top the national tables for Event Cinema attendance rates, most recently, we were second in the country for the Royal Opera House Independent Cinema League Table 2018/19. We were also first nationally for the recent production of Fleabag. We are very proud of the reputation we enjoy nationally, so thank you for helping to put Letchworth on the map.

2020 is the Herts Year of Culture and Broadway is playing an active role in supporting the programme throughout the year, so please watch out for special performances or opportunities to try something new.

I look forward to welcoming you soon!

Kevin Parker, Creative Programmer

THE RONNIE SCOTT’S ALL STARS

The Ronnie Scott’s Story: 60th Anniversary Concert

In October, perhaps the world's most iconic music venues celebrates its 60th birthday - in honour of this milestone The Ronnie Scott’s All Stars take to the road to celebrate the ‘Ronnie Scott’s Story’.

Direct from London’s world-famous jazz club and combining world class live jazz alongside rare archive photos and video footage, the award-winning Ronnie Scott’s All Stars take you on a guided, musical tour of this music institution.

Life at Ronnie’s is evocatively re-imagined through tales of the club’s past visitors: from pop stars, film stars and politicians to comedians and royalty, but above all, the musicians. This is a unique evening celebrating the music and history of Ronnie Scott’s and is a must for any music fan.

CONSPIRACY THEORY: A LIZARD’S TALE

Marlon’s a Jew. This didn’t bother him much until he discovered that some people he knew didn’t believe the Holocaust happened.

From 9/11 to shape-shifting lizards and Holocaust denial, this is a darkly comic tale of one man’s journey through the conspiracy underworld.

Marlon examines why conspiracy theories are as popular as ever and why in the age of post-truth, fake news gives rise to ancient slander. A comic tale which is no laughing matter.

ALL OVER THE PLACE
Griff is back with his brand new full-length stand-up show. This is an evening of hilarious true stories, riffs, observations and details of recent medical procedures. It’s all guaranteed to be packed with wicked insights into the pains of celebrity, the vicissitudes of parenthood and encounters with the great, the good and even the royal. Yes, Griff is all over the place this year so make sure not to miss him!

DON GIOVANNI
Judgement Day for Don Giovanni, the world’s greatest lover. A supernatural comedy-thriller occurring in breakneck real time; beginning with murder, ending with a hellish sentence passed on the legendary seducer; the epic downfall of a man who always knows what we need, always makes us happy, but eventually realises he is out of time. Polarising audiences for centuries, startlingly modern yet a dinosaur, can Don Giovanni still make us love him as he hurtles through his final hours?

In a UK first, flying over the pond to wave her magic wand (no pun intended!) Stacy Layne Matthews (RuPaul’s Drag Race S3, All Stars S4) joins the cast of Sinderella as The Fairy Drag Henny! Will she be able to ensure true love still prevails or will our Wicked Step Mother Divina De Campo (RuPaul’s Drag Race UK) and her wicked Step Daughter Fifi Jamie Campbell (Everybody’s Talking about Jamie) get their evil way? Rob King (BGT 2019 semi-finalist) joins the cast as Prince Charming.

This show promises to be full of camp, fabulous and filthy fun! With glittering sets, a laugh-a-minute script and more sequins and diamantes on our costumes than you even knew possible - you’ll have a ball this February at our naughty little pantomime adventure.

RICH HALL’S
HOEDOWN DELUXE

Rich Hall’s comedy/music locomotive keeps on rollin’.

Ever-evolving, ever-changing, Rich’s combination of keen acerbic stand-up combined with spit and sawdust alt-country lyricism is a ‘win-win’ (GUARDIAN) as sold out crowds across the UK have attested. Fans keep returning because this show goes where other comedians wouldn’t dare: Barrow-in-Furness for example.

Gut-busting, rib-tickling and toe-tapping, Rich Hall’s Hoedown Deluxe covers the full anatomical spectrum.

JEEVES AND WOOSTER
IN PERFECT NONSENSE

Take your seats with caution! Aristocratic buffoon Bertie Wooster has hired the theatre for the night to present his one-man show detailing a recent series of misadventures, including the theft of a novelty cow creamer and a narrow escape from matrimony. The only trouble is Bertie hasn’t worked out who’s going to play the parts. Will the show be a disaster? Or will his trusty manservant Jeeves save the day?

‘I have to say I’m finding this acting business rather easy Jeeves! Apart from having to do a newt impression, I think that went tremendously well.’

In this joyous, Olivier award-winning reimagining of the classic P.G.Wodehouse characters, three actors hurl themselves from role to role as they race to tell the story of Bertie’s own farcical adventures.

MATT PARKER’S
COMEDY OF MATHS ERRORS

Matt Parker is a stand-up comedian and mathematician. He appears regularly on TV and online: as well as being a presenter on the Discovery Channel his YouTube videos have been viewed over 85 million times.

Humble Pi explores the greatest mathematical near-misses and mishaps involving planes, bridges, the internet, big data and more. Matt Parker shows us the bizarre ways maths trips us all up. Being wrong has never felt so right. – In 1983, a Canadian flight crew used pounds instead of kilograms and a plane took off with about half the fuel it needed, running out mid-flight.

As the new year begins, so does another year of star-studded productions. We’d like to thank those of you who visited our iconic venue during 2019 and supported us in our mission to bring quality cinema to your doorstep at an affordable price.

We have some big blockbusters hitting our screens over the coming months, including the 25th James Bond instalment – No Time To Die, Disney’s live action remake of Mulan and First World War epic 1917 from director Sam Mendes. As well as international big hits, we’ll also continue to screen a diverse range of international documentaries from renowned filmmakers.

If you’re a parent or guardian to a baby then why not join us for one of our popular baby screenings? These take place most Thursdays at 11am, when we show a popular film with the lights on and the volume turned down – pushchairs are welcome too! Kids Club runs every Saturday and Sunday at 10.30am. With funding from the Heritage Foundation, families can enjoy a popular film for just £1.75 per ticket.

THE METROPOLITAN OPERA

WOZZECK

An operatic masterpiece, set in an apocalyptic pre–World War I environment.

THE GERSHWINS

PORGY & BESS

This stylish production set on the Charleston waterfront, vibrant with the music, dancing, emotion, and heartbreak of its inhabitants.

AGrippina

Joyce DiDonato leads as the imperious title empress in the Met’s first-ever performance of this tale of deception and deceit. Set in Ancient Rome, Agrippina plots the downfall of Emperor Claudius to secure the throne for her son Nero, in Handel’s first operatic triumph.

DER FLIEGENDE HOLLANDER

Great bass-baritone Sir Bryn Terfel returns in the title role of the cursed sea captain doomed to sail the open ocean for eternity.

TOSCA

Superstar soprano Anna Netrebko returns in the title role as the explosive diva in Puccini’s best-loved operatic thriller.
THE SLEEPING BEAUTY

This production of The Sleeping Beauty has been delighting audiences in Covent Garden since 1946. A classic of Russian ballet, it established The Royal Ballet both in its new home after World War II and as a world-class company. Sixty years later, in 2006, the original staging was revived, returning Oliver Messel’s wonderful designs and glittering costumes to the stage.

LA BOHÈME

Puccini’s opera of young love in 19th-century Paris is packed with beautiful music, including lyrical arias, celebratory choruses for Act II’s evocation of Christmas Eve in the Latin Quarter and a poignant final scene over which the composer himself wept.

Richard Jones’s character-led production perfectly captures La Bohème’s mixture of comedy, romance and tragedy, with striking designs by Stewart Laing.

THE CELLIST / DANCES AT A GATHERING

Inspired by the momentous life and career of the cellist Jacqueline du Pré, Cathy Marston introduces for her first work for The Royal Ballet Main Stage.

Jerome Robbins’s elegant and elegiac classic forms the second part of the programme.

FIDELIO

Beethoven’s only opera is a masterpiece, an uplifting story of risk and triumph. In this new production, conducted by Antonio Pappano, Jonas Kaufmann plays the political prisoner Florestan, and Lise Davidsen his wife Leonore (disguised as ‘Fidelio’) who daringly sets out to rescue him.

SWAN LAKE

Down on his luck in the suburbs, John Falstaff plans to hustle his way to a comfortable retirement by seducing the wives of two wealthy men. Unknown to him, it’s the women of Windsor who really pull the strings, orchestrating Falstaff’s comeuppance amidst a theatrical smorgasbord of petty rivalries, jealousies and over-inflated egos.

CAVALLERIA RUSTICANA / PAGLIACCI

Two opera classics are drawn together in this wonderfully observed re-creation of life in a south Italian village as a travelling theatre visits and emotions erupt. The award-winning production by Damiano Michieletto presents vividly the fast-moving, shocking events brought about by secret love and uncontrollable jealousy.

2020 IS LOOKING LIKE AN EXCITING TIME FOR THE BROADWAY GALLERY

You may have noticed some new developments recently and we have more planned for the year ahead, with a dynamic programme of exhibitions, events, workshops and activities within the gallery and out in the community.

The gallery will be exhibiting a vibrant mix of established and ‘emerging’ artists, with supporting exhibitions to showcase the brightest talent from the local area. I hope the new programme will primarily serve the interests of Letchworth residents but also strive to establish a reputation as an important arts centre nationally.

As part of the planned changes, we will be increasing the number of exhibitions in the main gallery from four per year to six to broaden the range of art that we can show. We’ve extended the Foyer Gallery into the café to maximise space for our local artists. The ‘Studio’ has now become an additional exhibition space dedicated to film, new media, installation and performance. The Studio programme is intended to be more experimental and progressive and will focus on younger, early-career artists. Finally, we recently launched the Broadway Plinth, a permanent fixture in the café area exhibiting single works by renowned sculptors.

Over the coming year we will be maintaining our Family Arts events as well as introducing lots of new activities from life drawing classes to live music events. We will also be developing a residency programme inviting internationally known artists to work in and respond to Letchworth and its unique history.

We hope to welcome you to the gallery soon.

EXHIBITION

Parade, a Celebration of Contemporary Art Textiles is the first major exhibition curated by Kristian Day at the Broadway Gallery.

Inspired by the banner Foursquare our City, designed by Edmund Hunter in 1909 to celebrate the founding of Letchworth. Bringing together 15 acclaimed international artists Parade is presented as a survey and acclamation of recent developments in visual art textiles, showcasing the many ways in which threads and fabrics are being used by contemporary artists.

KATHERINE ROBERTS & SIAN WILSON
TREMBLE | TROMOS
Tremble / Tromos is a collaboration between multidisciplinary artist Katherine Roberts and sound artist Sian Wilson exploring themes of birth and transformation. In response to Roberts’ poem Tromos the artists have created sculptural work, drawing and soundscape.

FAY ZMIJA NICOLSON
SPA SONGS
Spa Songs is a musical performance composed and choreographed by artist Fay Zmija Nicolson. Working only with voices, the musical element of this work draws from harmonic relationships found in Early Music, alongside the DIY and anti-establishment energy of folk and punk traditions.

ANNA READING
FLOCK
2019 Mark Tanner Sculpture Prize winner, Anna Reading, will be exhibiting with us as part of our Broadway Plinth programme. This new work continues the artist’s exploration into the absurd relationship between the organic and the synthetic, drawing inspiration from the barren coastal landscapes of the UK.

LIFE DRAWING CLASSES WITH MATT BURDEN
Join artist Matt Burden for a regular series of life drawing sessions at Broadway Gallery. The sessions are suitable for all levels and offer the chance to develop your skills. During the sessions, participants will have the opportunity to explore both long and short poses and gain valuable feedback from Matt and the group. All you need to bring is some paper and a pencil or pen, although you may want to consider charcoal, crayons, or pastels for a more expressive approach. Visit broadway-letchworth.com/studio-gallery to book your place.

Culture is taking centre stage during 2020, as part of a year-long campaign to showcase Hertfordshire’s creative opportunities.

Hertfordshire Year of Culture 2020 (HYOC2020) will put the spotlight on arts, culture and heritage across the county.

Broadway is thrilled to be working in collaboration with HYOC2020 and we look forward to celebrating different types of art, share cultural experiences and explore our creative heritage over the coming year.
